

NEW SCREENSHOTS FROM ARCANIA: FALL OF SETARRIF

The time for true heroes is coming... soon.

Vienna, Austria, 4th October 2011: Nordic Games GmbH have today published its' first set of screenshots from "Arcania: Fall of Setarrif", the stand-alone expansion of Arcania which will be available for download on October 25th 2011.

In "Arcania: Fall of Setarrif" an ominous, demonic force devastates the Eastern lands of Argan, heading towards the coastal city of Setarrif.

Meanwhile, King Rhobar III mobilises his royal military forces to conquer the last of the rebels. To make matters worse, the route to Setarrif is blocked by a volcanic eruption. Only the most simplistic of history books will describe this series of unfortunate events as a coincidence. The outcome of this tale depends on the nameless hero and his strongest allies...
